IT'S OLD, BUT STILL SOUNDS GOOD

The Passing of the Pigskin Season of 1904.

Nearly a month has passed away since this event to be told later on occurred, but "lest we forget" we will print it yet. And a review of how Auburn put the last game, of an unbeaten season, to the good is like Dr. Ross' dog tail story, bound to occur.

On last Thanksgiving afternoon Auburn and Georgia lined up as follows:

AUBURN.

Center—"Doc" Butler.
Right Guard—"Pif" Moon.
Right Tackle—Hughes.
Right End—Wilkerson.
Left End—"Hogy" Paterson.
Quarter Back—"Squire" Perkins.
Right Half—Frit Reynolds.
Left Half—"Ump" Foy.
Full Back—"Phil" Lacey.

GEORGIA.

Center—Brown.
Right Guard—Richie.
Right Tackle—Rosseter.
Right End—Moore.
Left End—Sullivan.
Quarter Back—Dorsey.
Right Half—Wooten.
Left Half—Martin.
Full Back—Sage.

In turf parlance we may say "they were off in a bunch with the Orange and Blue well in the lead," "Molasses" ran slow and "Whiskers" scored by a close shave. Putting Georgia—the word—equal to Molasses and Whiskers we have condensed story of "all about the trouble" or "how Auburn piled up 17 points against Georgia's 5."

Anyway Capt. Reynolds won the toss and with all the eyes of the Macon smart set upon him, put his foot into the oval for 25 of 'em. Rossiter the "Big" Savannah policeman, walked his beat for two yards, with the little yellow prisoner under his arm. On the next trip he fumbled and Auburn takes the ball. Foy subscribes 7 and 6 on two tries. Lacey plants for 1 1-2 and Foy annexes 4. Lacey gets first down, Reynolds second. Easy Streit first down, and "Phil" goes over "do" line. Reynolds fails at goal.

Score: Auburn, 5; Georgia, 0. The first tune is played in 7 minutes and 7 seconds.

Reynolds kicks off for Auburn and the ball clears the cross bar of the goal posts. Georgia kicks from 25-yard line and Perkins touches the ball, but fails to get a grip. Georgia then gets her finger in the pudding for 3 1-2 yards. Rossiter fails to gain, Sullivan goes around right end for 15 yards and Moore gets 4 yards. Martin 3 yards, Wadley 6 yards, Sullivan 4 yards, Wadley makes the first down. After Martin fails to gain Moore pleases Georgia with 3 yards to the left of the center. Martin strips off 2 yards, Moore 1 yard and Dorsey plays to the tune of "nothing doing." Then Sullivan kicks the ball. Georgia turns a pretty trick and shows her hand for a touchdown. Sullivan fails at goal. Score: Auburn, 5; Georgia, 5.

Sullivan kicks off to Patterson and the ball is returned 10 yards. Foy gets a per cent of 1 yards. Georgia plays off side, Auburn takes 5 yards more, Foy is thrown by Sullivan and loses 2 1-2 yards. Reynolds gains 1 yard and Foy kicks 40 yards to Dorsey. Georgia gains 2 yards, then 1 yard. She kicks the oval and Dorsey makes a touchback.

Auburn kicks from the 25 yard line and Georgia advances the ball 5 yards. Sullivan gets 2 1-2 yards, and again 2 1-2 yards for the first down. Sullivan takes 5 yards for the first down. Sullivan takes 5 yards, Rossiter does the trick for 3 yards and Wadley gains 2 yards. Moore fails to gain. Sullivan repeats and then Georgia kicks the ball. Lacey gets 4 1-2 yards for Auburn, then 2 1-2 more, and does the other 2 1-2 yards for a touchdown. Reynolds kicks goal, easy sailing. Score at end of first half: Auburn, 11; Georgia, 5.

SECOND HALF.

Georgia starts the second half with a kickoff to Auburn. In two trials Auburn only gets a slice 2 yards thick. Foy kicks to Dorsey, who advances the ball 6 yards.

Georgia rams three times against Auburn wall, but fails. Sullivan punts to Auburn and Moon gains 4 yards. Reynolds makes dashing run for 25 yards over Georgia's right, and Foy makes it first down. Streit gains 8 yards, Reynolds bucks again for 15 yards against Georgia. Auburn clips off 10 yards more. Foy fails to gain over Sullivan, Lacey gets 4 yards, and then takes another 5 yards. Lacey gets 5 yards easily for a touchdown, and then Reynolds kicks a pretty goal. Score: Auburn, 17; Georgia, 5.

Sullivan kicks off for 30 yards to Auburn and the ball is returned 10 yards. Moon batters Georgia's line for 4 yards and follows with 1 yard. Foy gets 3 yards on a double pass; Reynolds bucks the line for 3 yards, then is presented with 7 yards more. Lacey hammers away for 6 yards; Auburn gets 5 yards more and Lacey 3 yards more. Lacey and Reynolds then get 8 yards a piece, and Reynolds follows with a gain of 3 1-2 yards. The ball then goes over to Georgia on downs.

Georgia makes two trials and goes only 2 yards. Sullivan then kicks to Foy, who advances the ball 10 yards. Moon goes through for 9 yards. Auburn continues the story for 3 yards more and Foy takes 6 yards and 3 yards in 2 backs. The game was then called on account of darkness after 2 1-2 hours play, the ball being in Auburn's possession in the middle of the field.

Thus endeth the last game of the season of 1904.

Referee, Butler, "N. C." Umpire, Brown, Emory, Headlines man, Dorsey, Timekeepers, "Pat" Chambers, of Auburn, and Beaver, of Georgia. Halves, 35 minutes. Time of game, 2 1-2 hours.

AUBURN'S STAR RE-INSTATED BY S.L.A.A.

Tackle Jones is Relieved of the Charge of Professionalism By Executive Committee.

As a result of the recent committee meeting of the S. L. A. A. held Saturday in Birmingham, Ala., Frank Jones, Auburn's star tackle the early part of the past baseball campaign, was unanimously reinstated and relieved of the charge of professionalism.

This charge was brought against Jones by Alabama University, and rather than have any contention in the matter, Auburn, with rare regard for pure sportsmanship and the ethics of the game, withdrew their man pending an investigation by the S. L. A. A. committee.

The facts in the case were these: Jones came to Auburn from St. Albans prep. school. He was regarded not only as the best man on Auburn's team, but the best tackle in the South by many who had seen him play. Late in October he was formally protested by Alabama and pending the charges of professionalism brought against him was withdrawn during the remainder of the football campaign.

His case was brought before the executive board at Birmingham Saturday and the committee unanimously ruled that Jones was eligible to play. Dr. Ross, Auburn's representative, did not sit in the hearing. At the conclusion of the verdict Auburn's faculty was warmly commended by the entire committee for their sportsmanlike stand in the case. Jones will be one of Auburn's baseball stars this spring and will return to college next fall and resume his place at tackle on the football squad. This means that Auburn will return nine of her great 1904 eleven and the prospects for a championship season are the brightest in her history.

Auburn's stand in the Jones case should be an example to her sister colleges and one to be followed in such matters.—Atlanta Journal.

A CARD.

We want to impress it upon the student body, and especially the new men, that the Orange and Blue is strictly a college paper and must be supported by the boys. Unless every man subscribes for the paper and pays his subscription, they cannot expect a good performance.

Auburn! Auburn! is our cry,
V-I-C-T-O-R-Y.

What can't Donahue do? Once again after a lapse of three years, the Auburn Tiger has returned from the field of battle with a bunch of scalps at his belt, and his own resting safely on his head. And if we consider what he has done, it will doubtless give us much satisfaction. Early in the season, according to experts, we were rank outsiders when it came to the championship class. Our material was light, slow and new. Besides our coach was also new. However, we could probably test the strength of some of the better teams of the South." We are glad to say now that all of the teams we met proved unequal to the test.

Out of the aforesaid "light, slow and new material," our coach has constructed a team which has sent five inter-collegiate teams into the class of the "would-be's."

Our team has broken several records this year. They defeated Clemson on her own campus for the first time in the history of her football team; for the first time in ten years, or in a total of 10 games played. Heisman's was not allowed to make first down. And we did it. During the entire game the total number of yards gained by the Techs was eight. What's the matter with Auburn?

We also took revenge on some teams that had beaten us in the past. Clemson had beaten us 18 to 0 the last time we played them. But we evened matters up. We bearded the mountain lions of Carolina in their dens. Then came Nashville, who had in October, 1901, trounced us to the tune of 23 to 5. But we paid him back with interest by walloping them to the tune of 19 to 0. The score does not indicate the extent of the walloping, but they were unable to make first down during the game. Next on the revenge list was Alabama and she shared the same fate. Last came old Georgia, but we couldn't revenge on her so she followed the others.

Term examinations are about over and the holidays are at hand. We hope each boy can go home with the feeling that he has done his best, also that he will enjoy the holidays to their fullest extent and return to work with renewed vigor. If you haven't done well this term return with the determination to make up for the time wasted. And if you have done well let the good work go on, only improve a little, for there is always room for improvement.

Just after Christmas we have the class football games. According to the rulings of the Athletic Advisory Board, no man who has made his "A" can take part in these games. So that the class teams will consist of men who have scrubbed and undeveloped material. The greatest interest is always taken in these games and the keenest rivalry exists between the different classes. So let every man that is able come out and aid his class team. You may not think that you can play football. But remember it is a bad principle for a man to believe that he can't do a thing even before he attempts it. Come out and try. If you fail no harm is done. If you succeed you have won a great victory. If you are small just remember "the race is not to the swift, etc."

The games will be played during the last two weeks of January, the change being made because of the fact that baseball practice should and will now commence early in February. Baseball practice as has been before stated, will commence early in February. Heretofore we have been too late in commencing our practice. But this year the prospects are bright for a good team and it is the intention of Captain Hall to have the team in good form before the season actually commences. There are plenty of good candidates for each position and the man that makes the team will have to hustle. The schedule has not yet been entirely arranged, but will include some hard games with the best teams in the South. The teams that we will probably meet are Mercer, Georgia, Alabama, Techs, Sewanee, Vanderbilt, and if possible, Tulane and Baton Rouge.

By J. W. Heisman, Coach Georgia School of Technology.

FIRST TEAM.

Center—Stone, Vanderbilt.
Right Guard—Brown, Vanderbilt.

Right Tackle—Brown, Tech.
Left Tackle—Derrick, Clemson.
Right End—W. Wilson, Tech.
Left End—Beane, Tennessee.

Quarterback—Scarborough, Sewanee.

Right Half—Craig, Vanderbilt.
Fullback—Holland, Clemson.

SUBSTITUTE ELEVEN.

Center—Smith, Cumberland.
Right Guard—Sartain, Alabama.

Left Guard—Braswell, Auburn.
Right Tackle—Graham, Vanderbilt.

Left Tackle—Streit, Auburn.
Right End—Manier, Vanderbilt.
Left End—Sullivan, Georgia.

Quarterback—Kyle, Vanderbilt.
Left Half—Foy, Auburn.

Right Half—Burke, Alabama.
Fullback—Hamilton, Vanderbilt.

Note—These men are selected from S. I. I. A. teams only.

Reynolds Tichenor, in Atlanta News, gives practically the same teams with the exception of Foy, at fullback, in Holland's place. And Moon at guard on the second team. Both Tichenor and Heisman declare Jones to be the first tackle of the year, the question of his eligibility being the only reason why he was not placed on the all-Southern. Now that all doubt as to his being eligible is removed, he stands fourth as the premier tackle of the South. "Made in Auburn."

These songs, selected as they are from songs of all the colleges, represent the most popular songs in use today by the many Glee Clubs and male quartettes.

The songs in this collection are up to date and most of them are comparatively easy to learn, which adds considerably to their worth.

In the collection are a number of famous old songs familiar to all, but of the kind that seem to gain popularity instead of losing it.

Taken as a whole the collection is first class in every respect.

LOCALS

The impromptu dance given November 28th, was very much enjoyed. Those present were: Mrs. Walkley, chaperone; Misses Harvey, Lottie Lane, Kate Lane, Wills, Averyt, Walkley, Parrish, of Virginia, and Veasey, of Mississippi, Messrs. John McDuffie, Whitaker, F. Renfro, L. W. Montgomery, Wilkinson, Paterson, Gould, Young, O. E., Bennett, Crazier, Marks, Matson, Watkins, Boyd, R. P.

Miss Kate Wills has returned, after a pleasant visit to Birmingham and Sylacauga.

Mr. John McDuffie, '04, attended the Georgia game and spent several days in Auburn on his way home.

Mr. J. R. Searcy, '04, now of Pensacola, spent Thanksgiving in Auburn.

Mr. Walker Willis was in town last week.

Miss Flournoy and Miss Epping, of Columbus, Ga., were the charming guests of Misses Lane last week.

The K. A. Fraternity gave a delightful German last week in honor of Miss Flournoy and Miss Epping, of Columbus, Ga.

Miss Alice Frazer entertained a number of her friends Thanksgiving night.

Mr. Peabody, of Birmingham, was in town last week.

Miss Veasey, of Mississippi, is the guest of Miss Clara Walkley.

Miss Martha O'Hara is the guest of her cousin, Miss Ella O'Hara.

Miss Emma Harvey spent a few days of last week in Columbus, Ga.

On November 30, Mrs. F. A. Wills entertained in honor of Miss Parrish, of Virginia. Progressive games were played, and after delightful refreshments were served, the prizes were awarded. The prizes were won by Miss Averyt, Messrs. Matson, Spain and Wills.

Invitations are out announcing the marriage of Prof. G. N. Mitchem, of this place, and Miss Julia Traylor, of Gabbettsville, Ga., December 21. Prof. Mitchem is Professor of Geology and Mining Engineering in the Alabama Polytechnic Institute. Miss Traylor has visited Auburn and has a large number of friends here.

On Friday night, November 27, [REDACTED] was held in honor of Miss Davis. Progressive dominoes was the game of the evening. After delightful refreshments were served the prizes were awarded by Prof. Ross. The ladies' prize, a piece of drawn work, was won by Miss Marion Anderson. The gentlemen's prizes, a paper knife, was won by Mr. Whitaker.

Mrs. Beeman, of St. Albans, Vt., sister of Dr. O. D. Smith, is visiting her relatives in Auburn.

Misses Florence entertained a number of their friends last week in honor of Miss Davis.

Mr. Mat Sloan, '01, is in town.

Mr. Wm. M. Turnley is in town.

The football season was closed here Saturday night, December 10, by perhaps the most delightful affair of its kind ever held in Auburn, the annual football supper given by the faculty to the football men. The Y. M. C. A. Hall was beautifully and artistically decorated for the occasion, and the supper, served by the ladies of the faculty, was enjoyed by eighty-five guests. The following toasts were responded to: Address of Welcome, President Chas. C Thach; "Our Alumni," by Hon. T. D. Samford, of Opelika; "Real Athletics," by Dr. O. D. Smith; "The Team of 1904," by Capt. R. S. Reynolds; "The Scrub," by Prof. G. N. Mitchem; "Yale," by Coach H. J. Donahue; "Some Reminiscences," by Dr. J. T. Anderson; "The Ladies," by Mr. Tom Bragg. Dr. George Petrie presided as toast master.

The annual debate between the Wirt and Websterian Literary Societies was held December 12. A large and appreciative audience was in attendance. The subject discussed was, "Resolved, That Japan rather than Russia should control the Far East." The Wirt Society, represented by C. K. Gould, of Mobile, and J. A. Miller, of Calhoun, upheld the affirmative, and the Websterian Society, represented by J. M. Poyner, of Dale, and C. C. Certain, of Madison, spoke for the negative. The committee of judges, composed of Rev. C. C. Pugh and Profs. J. R. Rutland and A. Bogard, rendered the decision in favor of the affirmative.

THE SEASON'S AFTERMATH.

Now we may see ourselves as others see us. Here is the ranking of the teams in the South as made by Coach Heisman of the Georgia School of Technology:

1. Vanderbilt,
2. Auburn.

3. Sewanee.
4. Tech.
5. Cumberland.
6. Clemson.
7. Tennessee.
8. Alabama.
9. Tulane.
10. Georgia.
11. Nashville.
12. Mississippi.

—Atlanta Constitution.

Here we have what he thinks of Auburn's team. We agree with him in everything with the exception of our being pastry for Vanderbilt. We believe that Vanderbilt would have suffered from indigestion after tackling the kind of "pastry" our team was made of.

AUBURN.

Auburn and Tech have furnished the surprises of the year—the former in her rehabilitation from past greatness after a gloomy spell of middle age darkness; the latter in jumping from nowhere to nearly any old where at a bound. Auburn's renaissance is due to plenty of fast, heavy, veteran material, excellent coaching and a revived, second-wind spirit which served to brighten up her earstwhile splendid traditions. The presence the whole season of Mitcham, one of the bright twinklers in Auburn's constellation of bygone days, must have contributed not a little. But there is no doubt that Auburn reached her height too soon, and by Thanksgiving day had gone some steps backward. Yes, there can be no doubt today she would be pastry for Vanderbilt. When she defeated Tech 12 to 0 she was probably at her height. Today Tech would like, if she could, to get another try, and thinks the result might be different. But it might not, and the victory was decisive enough to put Auburn ahead of Tech without a word of argument left.—Atlanta Constitution.

It is with great pleasure the university learns that the leading athletic editors of three of the most prominent journals in the country, namely, the New York Sun, Herald and Tribune, have conceded C. Huston Carpenter, the Tar Heels' next captain and great right halfback equal to any halfback in the republic. So Carolina rightly lays claim to its first all-American star. This should be gratifying not only to everybody in this State, but in the South, as it is the first all-American football player the South has produced.—Atlanta Journal.

We also rejoice with North Carolina over the above fact. It is a great victory for the South. It shows that football in the South can compare favorably with that of the North. The great and howling need of football in the South is the existence of preparatory schools where a boy is taught the rudiments of football before he enters college. The existence of a number of these in Tennessee, Carolina and Virginia account for the excellence of the teams produced by institutions in those States.

On November 30, Mrs. F. A. Wills entertained in honor of Miss Parrish, of Virginia. Progressive games were played, and after delightful refreshments were served, the prizes were awarded. The prizes were won by Miss Averyt, Messrs. Matson, Spain and Wills.

Invitations are out announcing the marriage of Prof. G. N. Mitchem, of this place, and Miss Julia Traylor, of Gaffettville, Ga., December 21. Prof. Mitchem is Professor of Geology and Mining Engineering in the Alabama Polytechnic Institute. Miss Traylor has visited Auburn and has a large number of friends here.

On Friday night, November 27, Mrs. Lipscomb entertained in honor of Miss Davis. Progressive dominoes was the game of the evening. After delightful refreshments were served the prizes were awarded by Prof. Ross. The ladies' prize, a piece of drawn work, was won by Miss Marion Anderson. The gentlemen's prizes, a paper knife, was won by Mr. Whitaker.

Mrs. Beeman, of St. Albans, Vt., sister of Dr. O. D. Smith, is visiting her relatives in Auburn.

Misses Florence entertained a number of their friends last week in honor of Miss Davis.

Mr. Mat Sloan, '01, is in town.

Mr. Wm. M. Turnley is in town.

The football season was closed here Saturday night, December 10, by perhaps the most delightful affair of its kind ever held in Auburn, the annual football supper given by the faculty to the football men. The Y. M. C. A. Hall was beautifully and artistically decorated for the occasion, and the supper, served by the ladies of the faculty, was enjoyed by eighty-five guests. The following toasts were responded to: Address of Welcome, President Chas. C. Thach; "Our Alumni," by Hon. T. D. Samford, of Opelika; "Real Athletics," by Dr. O. D. Smith; "The Team of 1904," by Capt. R. S. Reynolds; "The Scrub," by Prof. G. N. Mitchem; "Yale," by Coach H. J. Donahue; "Some Reminiscences," by Dr. J. T. Anderson; "The Ladies," by Mr. Tom Bragg. Dr. George Petrie presided as toast master.

The annual debate between the Wirt and Websterian Literary Societies was held December 12. A large and appreciative audience was in attendance. The subject discussed was, "Resolved, That Japan rather than Russia should control the Far East." The Wirt Society, represented by C. K. Gould, of Mobile, and J. A. Miller, of Calhoun, upheld the affirmative, and the Websterian Society, represented by J. M. Poyner, of Dale, and C. C. Certain, of Madison, spoke for the negative. The committee of judges, composed of Rev. C. C. Pugh and Profs. J. R. Rutland and A. Bogard, rendered the decision in favor of the affirmative.

THE SEASON'S AFTERMATH.

Now we may see ourselves as others see us. Here in the ranking of the teams in the South as made by Coach Heisman of the Georgia School of Technology:

1. Vanderbilt.
2. Auburn.

3. Sewanee.
4. Tech.
5. Cumberland.
6. Clemson.
7. Tennessee.
8. Alabama.
9. Tulane.
10. Georgia.
11. Nashville.
12. Mississippi.

—Atlanta Constitution.

Here we have what he thinks of Auburn's team. We agree with him in everything with the exception of our being pastry for Vanderbilt. We believe that Vanderbilt would have suffered from indigestion after tackling the kind of "pastry" our team was made of.

AUBURN.

Auburn and Tech have furnished the surprises of the year—the former in her rehabilitation from past greatness after a gloomy spell of middle age darkness; the latter in jumping from nowhere to nearly any old where at a bound. Auburn's renaissance is due to plenty of fast, heavy, veteran material, excellent coaching and a revived, second-wind spirit which served to brighten up her earstwhile splendid traditions. The presence the whole season of Mitcham, one of the bright twinklers in Auburn's constellation of bygone days, must have contributed not a little. But there is no doubt that Auburn reached her height too soon, and by Thanksgiving day had gone some steps backward. Yes, there can be no doubt today she would be pastry for Vanderbilt. When she defeated Tech 12 to 0 she was probably at her height. Today Tech would like, if she could, to get another try, and thinks the result might be different. But it might not, and the victory was decisive enough to put Auburn ahead of Tech without a word of argument left.—Atlanta Constitution.

It is with great pleasure the university learns that the leading athletic editors of three of the most prominent journals in the country, namely, the New York Sun, Herald and Tribune, have conceded C. Huston Carpenter, the Tar Heels' next captain and great right halfback equal to any halfback in the republic. So Carolina rightly lays claim to its first all-American star. This should be gratifying not only to everybody in this State, but in the South, as it is the first all-American football player the South has produced.—Atlanta Journal.

We also rejoice with North Carolina over the above fact. It is a great victory for the South. It shows that football in the South can compare favorably with that of the North. The great and howling need of football in the South is the existence of preparatory schools where a boy is taught the rudiments of football before he enters college. The existence of a number of these in Tennessee, Carolina and Virginia account for the excellence of the teams produced by institutions in those States.

Muse's and the Young Men

We say, "Muse's and the young men" in particular because so many stores, you know, are not particular when it comes to young men's clothing. Perhaps they think it's not worth their while.

They don't know young men as Muse's does—don't know that they are the most exacting and fastidious of clothes buyers.

But Muse's knows.

A BOY'S ESSAY ON WATER.

A very original essay on water by a very small boy is quoted by a contemporary. He divides all water into four subheadings—rain water, soda water, holy water and brine. "Water," he continues, is used for a good many things. Sailors use water to go to sea on. Water is a good thing to fire at boys with a squirt gun and to catch fishes in." But the strangest of all uses for water is this:

"Nobody," he says, "could be saved from drowning if these wasn't water to pull them out of." One is here reminded of a similar essay on pins, in the course of which the boy writer said that pins had saved many lives by people not swallowing them.—Ram's Horn.

Judge—Why don't you answer the question put to you?

Hobo—Well, gimme time, can't you?

Judge—Certainly; 90 days. Next case.

"So You think the country's going to be bad?" said Weary Willie.

"Sure ting," said Meandering Mike.

"What's the trouble?"

"To many free libraries and not enough free lunch."
